Dear Mr. Miller:

Enclosed is a self-explanatory letter I have received from Professor John J. Hanrahan of Morehead State University. Anything you can do, under the rules and regulations, to comply with his request, will be greatly appreciated by him.

With best wishes.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Perkins:

I plan to study this coming summer in the Soviet Union and would like to obtain two publications from the Central Intelligence Agency, namely, Leningrad Street Guide and Moscow Street Guide, neither of which is for sale by the Superintendent of Documents. I would appreciate your assistance.

Yours truly,

John J. Banrahan
